The school began in January 1850 in West Place, Lancaster and later moved to Queen's Square, Lancaster. It was first directed by W.H. Herford B.A. then from 1852 to 1854 with Rev. Davis as his partner. Rev. Herford then resigned the school to Rev. Davis at the end of 1861.

The school was named after an old farm house in Cardiganshire.

Rev. William Henry Herford was born at Coventry on the 20th October 1820 and died on the 27th April 1908 at Torbay Lodge, Paignton.

Rev. David Davis was born on the 2nd. June 1821 at Evesham and died on the 20th August 1897 and was buried there.
