Anglo-Saxon and Anglo-Norman Coins struck at Stafford	146

The Views of Public Buildings are from sketches by Mr. HERBERT RAILTON, the eminent architectural artist: they have been reproduced by Messrs. Waterlow and Sons. The Stafford Coins were drawn by Mr. F. ANDERSON, Gray's Inn-lane, an expert in that department, and the drawing was reproduced by the Autotype Company, as were also drawings of the Borough Arms and Seals, the Corporation Mace, and the Font in St. Mary's Church. The artists were in some cases assisted by photographs by Mr. D. BORDLEY, of Stafford, and others,
